

force on the face and body of the Chicagoan. White was plainly in distress, but weathered the storm.

That was the last bolt in Wolgast's locker. White rallied, and chipped away at his opponent, rolling up a margin of points on which he was given an unanimous verdict.

Though neither man is a champion, and not even a runner-up for the honor, they made themselves solid in Milwaukee by their showing. They were paid to fight, and they delivered the goods.

Both boys weighed in the neighborhood of 130 pounds at 3 o'clock in the afternoon.

Joe Tinker goes to Indianapolis tonight, and will meet President Ebbs of the Dodgers in the Hoosier City tomorrow, with the expectation of arranging terms that will secure him to Brooklyn at least for the season of 1914.

It is understood that Ebbs is on his way west with a certified check for $15,000 in his pocket. That will cover Joe's bonus demand and also make a nice advance on his first year's salary. If Ebbs really has this check, and is willing to give it up, then Tinker will go to Brooklyn.

Tinker was arrested for speeding his auto in Oak Park yesterday, but made a satisfactory explanation to the magistrate.

President Murphy of the Cubs is a hopeful individual, and has a persistent hunch that he will get Tinker yet. Murphy called up Manager Herzog of the Reds over the phone yesterday, and told him what trading material was on the Cub roster. If the Brooklyn deal for Tinker falls through Murphy is lining up for first track at the shortstop.

C. Webb asked Garry Herrmann, who first answered the phone, how long Herzog would be in Cincinnati. Garry was much peeved until Murphy explained that he didn't mean how long Herzog would be manager, but when did he intend to return to New York to close up his business.

In his conversation with Herzog Murphy congratulated Charlie on his appointment as Red manager.

Whaddye mean, congratulation? Why not condole with the poor unfortunate?
